4.1.2 The Institution has adequate facilities for cultural activities, sports, games (indoor, outdoor), gymnasium, yoga etc.

Cultural Activities: Cultural activities are part of the co-curricular and extra-curricular activities organized in the College. For big cultural event, the Basket Ball Court is used as a venue but other cultural activities are held in the Multi-Purpose Hall (Extended Hall).

- Sports and Game: An outdoor basket ball court is available in the previous years but recently it has been demolished to construct a new one. The space is also used to conduct volley ball, NCC Parade, Assembly etc. Other events like football and cricket etc, are conducted in the locality round run by Youth Clubs after obtaining permission from them. Since inception till date the College faced no problem in organizing such events due to the supportive and cordial relationship with Youth Clubs.

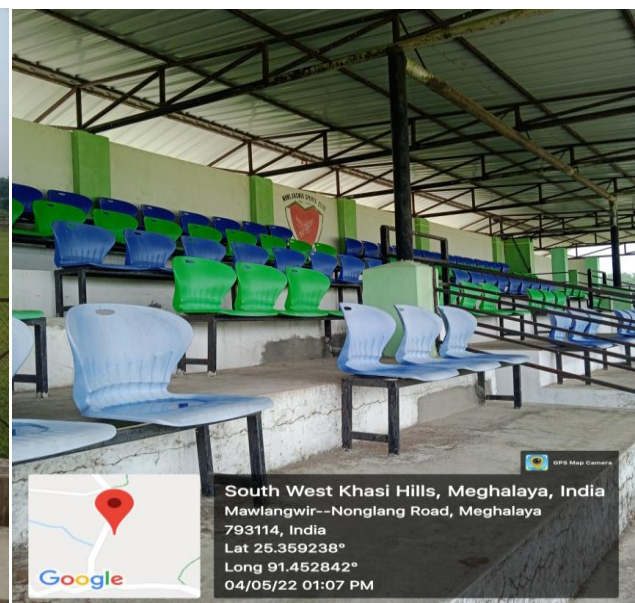

Annual outdoor game and indoor games are usually conducted at Playground of Mawlangwir Sports Club, one of the prominent Sports Club in the District. The College is situated less than 1 Km from the play ground and the Mini- Stadium. The Sports Club extended support and collaboration to the College without hesitation where College Sports activities are organized from one academic year to the next especially during College Week. There are times that the College has conducted programme at the Play ground of Mawkyrwat District Sports Association (MDSA)
